Baptism: Covenant, Call, Commission
 Jesus' baptism reminds us of the meaning of our own. Baptism helps us remember that we are part of the whole family of Christ. It begins a close personal relationship with God, but it doesn't end there. Because of our baptism, we are called to reach out to other people in our congregation, and beyond the walls of the church. Baptism not only draws us in toward God, it sends us out to care for God's people around the world. In our baptism, we are called beyond ourselves, just as Jesus was called beyond His heavenly home to seek us here on earth.

His Baptism: a Trifold Sign

The baptism of Jesus is a three-fold sign to his church:

- An anointing of Jesus as He begins His messianic ministry
- A revelation of God as Trinity: Father, Son and Holy Spirit
- A preview of our baptism, where Christians are anointed and share in Jesus' work

This is National Vocation Awareness Week. Celebrate our common vocation of Baptism. Pray for those who are discerning a Call to live their baptismal commitment as religious Brother, Sister, Priest or Deacon. If God is calling you, call Rev. Walter Szczesny at 716-847-5535.

EVANGELIZATION IN OUR VICARIATE

There will be a meeting at St. Patrick's Hall in Belfast on Tuesday, January 12th at 7:00pm. All are welcome to come and listen to a special program on Evangelization. If you would like to car pool with others, please meet at the Rectory at 6:00pm on January 12th.

GENERATIONS OF FAITH

GOF has been offered an opportunity to apply for a Diocesan Grant to develop a program for Young Adults ages 18-35. We realize that often we don't provide those of you in that group opportunities for spiritual growth and want to do something to change that. If you have any thoughts, comments or would like to help plan the program, please call Sue at the Rectory, 593-4834.

Twelve Months To "Play" With

*Janet was quite ill one day.
 Febrile troubles came her way.
 Martyr-like, she lay in bed;
 Aproned nurses softly sped.
 Maybe, said the leech judicial,
 Junket would be beneficial.
 Juleps, too, though freely tried,
 Augured ill, for Janet died.
 Sepulchre was sadly made;
 Octaves pealed and prayers were said.
 Novices with many a tear
 Decorated Janet's bier.*

Snow Song

O the snow, the beautiful snow
 Filling the sky and earth below
 Over the housetops, over the street
 over the heads of the people you meet
 Dancing, flirting, skimming along praising our Maker in crystalline song.
