Simple Love In Difficult Times

How should a Christian handle hurt and rejection? The answer is both simple and difficult. Simple, because the answer is always "respond with love". Difficult because loving the hurtful or hateful we encounter, goes against our basic human nature. We want to hit back, hurt back, and we forgot the blessings God has promise for those who love instead. And while He knows our sinful struggles with hate, God still expects an obedient attempt. It doesn't have to be grandiose. Try the simpler solutions. When someone scowls, smile in return. When they curse, whisper a prayer for them. When they push you away, slip an arm under theirs and pull them into a hug. It's a matter of trying simple love in difficult times, and letting God do the rest. Are you up for it?

Prayer For Love

As we celebrate this secular day of "love", let us remember Jesus' pure example and strive to be more like Him. Take a moment between chocolate and kisses this Valentine's Day to pray this simple prayer: Lord, Make us more aware of the deeper implications of love. May we listen to its demands. Make the work of our hands the expression of what our hearts have heard from Your Spirit. Teach us to love in costly actions, not easy phrases. Let us be in our love, Lord, a clearer reflection of You.

The Lord calls us to do God's Will. Pray that you may know God's Will in your life, especially if you have the inclination that you are being called to the ordained or consecrated life. If God is calling you, call Rev. Walter Szczesny at 716-847-5535.

It Starts With Ash Wednesday

Lent lasts 40 days from Ash Wednesday until Holy Thursday. The Lenten journey begins with ashes, a solemn reminder of life's limits, as we hear "Remember you are dust and to dust you will return". Ash Wednesday calls us to repent of our sins and return to communion with Christ, in preparation for the joy of His Easter resurrection.
